Princeton Theological Seminary.
Society of Inquiry. Standing Committee.
Accounts and transactions . v. 2

Account Book of the Standing Committee.

Duties of the Standing Committees.

These are defined in a general manner in Art. II of the Constitution and Art. 3 of the By Laws, Sec.s 8, 9, 10. It will however be found a convenience by new incumbents of the office to have a more particular Specification of them according to the discovery of experience.

1, They are entrusted with the care of the Reading Room and will see that it is swept and warmed by the Sweeper of the Seminary who is paid for that service $9 per annum.

2. Publications should be taken from the Post Office twice a day. The P. M. is instructed not to deliver them to others than the Com. without their written order. If all the Com. are absent from the Semy in vacation, they will generally find some one to attend to this part of their duty during that time.

3d. Care should be taken in putting papers on file, especially those ordered to be bound, that they be not torn nor otherwise injured. Rules relative to the removal of periodicals &c from the table to their proper places of deposit, also respecting the lending of Publications are posted up in the R. Room. Continual watchfulness will be found necessary to prevent publications from disappearing without leave. When any are missed under such circumstances, they should be forthwith advertised.

4th When a new publication is received, not having been ordered, it is customary to report the same to the Board of Managers on the reception of the 3d no. & ask for instructions.

5th When the subscription for a Periodical becomes due, which can be told readily by on examination of the List (vide other end of this book) the money should be remitted immediately without waiting for a Bill.

6th. The Comrs make all payments and obtain requisite funds by presenting their order to the Treasurer and signed by all the members specifying for what purpose the money is required. Act. 3d Sec. 9. Page Laws.

7th. It has been found most convenient for the Chairman of the Comrs to attend to the correspondence, the making of orders on the Treasury, keeping the pecuniary account, drawing the Semi Annual report.

8. Papers not ordered to be burnt are disposed of by the Comrs at Auction at such times as they find convenient; Notice all three times for a month,
